ZCode System is a system that works for sports investors. Unlike when you bet on your favorite team, zcode system uses analytics to show the best bet whether the team is winning or losing. The system works void of emotions as they use technology statistics of the various teams since 1999 and the knowledge of human cappers, most of who are sports professionals or expert sports analyzers. The predictions are based on 15 years data and evidence. After you have been given the prediction, you can check the statistics on the members area as the site does not hide any data.

Basically, they offer predictions on every major sport in the US including NBA, MLB, NHL and NFL. Besides, they integrate major soccer leagues globally, NCAA basketball, NCAA football and also horse racing.

This program covers all the important and big events in the sporting calendar; therefore when one sports season end, another is already getting started. That takes account of soccer, football, basketball, baseball, and many others.

The sports are selected which allow you to take on in high-volume betting at bookies due to their popularity and are selected using more than eighty different parameters which govern every game like:

- Injuries
- Player conditions
- Home or away team
- Past performance
- Goalies
- Team selection
- Events
- Trainers
ZCode System

- Predicted future performance
- The significance of the match
- Feuds
- Rivalries

And other factors which can influence the result of every sport. Like for instance, once you knew that the top performing football team would be playing with an underdog team, obviously the best will be on the best team. However, what if the chosen team only sidelined its three best players in recent injuries and the coach was experiencing a personal issue, would they be such a powerful contender to win the match? This is where knowledge is essential.

A big part of guessing the right result of a sporting event like baseball or football match like for instance is to understand the winning value of every team on the day of the game. Getting all the knowledge needed to entirely cover each situation would likely wear you out relatively fast.

However, if you have an automated formula doing all the job for you, you can use that information and pick the winning team precisely and accurately than the average bettor. Utilizing the ZCode System is like having a specialized team of sports experts working relentlessly for you on a daily basis.

season. This allows you to evaluate them at a glance. See immediately the level of stability of any player or team as well as their power rank for better-informed betting than any body else.

How Does The System Work?

Zcode System claims that they are not about gambling and they trade sports just as you would in Forex trading. They apply more than 80 parameters to come up with the winning system. Some of the parameters include player injuries and other player conditions, home or away games, goalies, past performance, trainers/coach, match importance, feuds, rivalries, events and predicted future performance among others. Besides, they take sports’ experts opinion to add to the analytics. All these parameters are added to give an outcome.

Zcode system is not all about who wins and who loses; it is about the value of the bet. If for instance, in a game between Atlanta Braves and Washington Nationals, Braves have a winning chance of 55 percent but with 2.27 odds, Zcode will advice that you do not bet as the bet lacks value. However, if in the same game Braves have a 64 percent chance of hitting, Zcode will give it a 5 star rating which is the highest bet rating. These are the kind of analysis that Zcode will give on every game.

Besides, you are given the reason for every bet rating and you can verify using the statistics shown. It is easy to get started.

Advantages

The Zcode System forum keeps new and experienced users abreast with new information, offers machine recommendations, offers opinions about various games. It is an active community that gives you the extra information you need before placing your bet. There may be an injury that
ZCode System

Zcode does not factor; the forum brings it to your notice. This is a big plus for the zcode members.

Zcode System offers flexibility that no other betting system has offered. The system offers subsystems for sports investors who are not able to go through each individual game. The loads of information can be confusing, especially to the newbies, and thus they give specific picks each day. You can follow systems like the Delta and Alpha Trends and make money with less hassle. Forum members will also create systems that lead you to winning too.

The Zcode system is always updated to ensure that the users get up to date statistics. Besides, the system is easy to use. After creating your account, you get access to 24/7 support, daily winning picks, video tutorials, guides and FAQ to get you started. The support team is great and can be accessed any time of the day.

Disadvantages

The plethora of information on the Zcode System site can be confusing to the newbies; the pitcher ratings, win/loss streaks, power rankings and a number of other information that the investor must understand. For VIP membership, you have to be a professional and dedicated sports investor and not just a casual one. This is so because of the monthly charges which currently stand at $198. Those who only want to bet $10 for every game have to build their bankrolls before joining the system. It will only work for those willing to invest $50 to $100 for every game.

Conclusion
